LAITH AL-SAAD

Laith Al-Saadi recently headlined the St. Louis Blues Festival, July 5th & by popular demand returns to The Gem for an encore performance of blues, the classiest classic rock and of course a great dose of his own original compositions. This special show will be his CD release party for his 2nd CD, "In The Round".

These songs are his own compositions and he will be previewing those for you. During and after the festival, we heard comments such as:

"Laith is the best guitar player I have ever seen"

"He is a very powerful vocalist and has a tremendous range, wow!!!"

"What a creative guitar player, his solo's never repeat, always fresh".
